To
The Honorable Judge Martin Glenn

Case No. 22-10964

10 August 2022

Letter to the Honorable Judge Martin Glenn requesting a priority court order to Celsius to return assets claimed by Andreas Kumar prior to Celsius' bankruptcy filing

Der Honorable Judge Martin Glenn,

I transferred cryptocurrencies to Celsius for investment purposes to a Celsius Earn account. I am self-represented. The funds represent a significant part of my retirement savings.

On June 12 2022, Celsius abruptly paused transactions for their clients without any warning. Effectively, I lost control of my assets. My investments were now being withheld from me by Celsius against my will and without my consent.

Soon after this, on June 24 2022, I sent a written letter via registered mail, demanding that Celsius reinstate my access to my assets and to transfer my cryptocurrencies out of Celsius to a personal cryptocurrency wallet that I own. The letter was sent by registered mail and delivered on June 30, 2022 (copy of the letter is attached, Canada Post/ US Postal Service tracking sheet attached).
I never received a reply from Celsius.

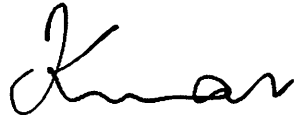

All this happened BEFORE Celsius filed for bankruptcy on July 13, 2022.

Celsius is continuing to withhold my assets from me.
I believe this is illegal.

I am asking you, Honourable Judge, to grant my claim and order Celsius to return my assets to me. I want Celsius to unblock the asset transfer function on my account, so I could transfer my assets out of Celsius to a personal cryptocurrency wallet. I am asking for this to be prioritized over the bankruptcy proceedings, because I filed the claim in written before Celsius filed for bankruptcy.

This would require a simple unlocking of the transfer feature on my account, or Celsius could transfer the assets to a personal cryptocurrency wallet the address of which I could provide.

Thank you, dear Honorable Judge, for your help and consideration.
Kind regards
